Dear <Student First Name> and family,

Congratulations on completing the Junior Music Course at the end of this semester! You have had a wide range of musical experiences and gained many valuable skills during the course.

For students who have graduated from the Junior Music Course, we recommend you continue your music education by joining the Junior Extension Course. You are now reaching more advanced levels and there is much educational benefit in continuing to learn in a group environment. Students are motivated by interacting with their peers and sharing the enjoyment of creating music together. But importantly, many of the musical skills and techniques experienced in the group class cannot be duplicated by attending only private lessons. Please see the enclosed information sheet for details about the course.

We are offering the Junior Extension Course Book 1 at the following times and locations:
